Route planner selection process for internationals*

2023 | October | November | December | January | February | March | April | May | June | July | August | September | 2024

START HERE

Don't forget to take both the Selection and the Admissions route!

October 1 2023 until January 15 2024
Apply to study medicine via Studielink

January 16
You will receive information about the materials to be studied for the selection day.

February 23, 24 or 25
Selection day in Groningen

April 15
You will receive a ranking by email, based on your test results.

April 15 until September 10
Places will be offered via Studielink, based on ranking.

Have you been offered a place? Accept it within two weeks via Studielink.

Make sure you complete your registration at the University of Groningen.

REGISTERED FOR STUDY

Ultimately January 15
Upload additional documents before the 15th of January
Note: You must have received a confirmation from the Admissions Office that they have received the minimally required documents to start processing your application before the selection day.

The Admissions Office will assess whether you are eligible for admission or not.

eligible

ineligible

Ultimately July 15
You need to be able to prove that you meet the entry requirements.

eligible

ineligible

Ultimately September 1
If you fail your pre-university exams you can request a cancellation of your selection attempt before the 1st of September.

Admissions Office
https://www.rug.nl/education/contact/information-services/contact-form-admissions-office

Selection
selectionmedicalbachelors@umcg.nl

Studielink

Take action

*No rights can be derived from the content of this route planner. The UMCG reserves the right to adjust the procedure described here in response to calamities.
GNK: https://www.rug.nl/umcg/education/geneeskunde/selectie/

rijksuniversiteit groningen

umcg