CLCG Annual Report 2017 Appendix

1. Funding

In 2017, CLCG was granted six NWO subsidies.

Principal Investigator	Start date	Granting date	Amount	Title project	Type subsidie
Gosse Bouma	1-3-2017	31-10-2017	€ 15.000	Informatie-Extractie met Netwerken en Syntaxis	NWO KIEM
Jack Hoeksema	15-5-2017	31-08-2018	€ 37.736	SPOD	Clariah-Core
Kees de Glopper	1-10-2017	30-09-2020	€ 389.900	Taalcompetenties voor een dynamische arbeidsmarkt	NRO Beroepsonderwijs
Petra Hendriks	1-9-2017	31-08-2021	€ 197.258	PhD Iris Scholten: Predictive processing in children with Autism Spectrum Disorders	NWO Promoties in de Geesteswetenschappen
Jorrig Vogels	1-11-2017	31-08-2021	€ 249.994	Try to see it my way: when do speakers consider the listener's perspective?	NWO VENI
Saskia Peels	1-2-2018	31-10-2021	€ 234.688	Polytheism as language. A linguistic approach to divin plurality in the religious experience of Greek worshippers	NWO VENI

Table 1: CLCG Grants

In 2017, CLCG received seven grants from other external sources:

Principal Investigator	Amount	Title project	Type subsidie
Nana Haug Hilton	€ 180.000	Stimmen fan Fryslan	Prov. Fryslan
Martijn Wieling	€ 13735	Tongval in een 2e taal	Groninger Universiteits fonds (GUF)
Kees de Glopper	€ 3500	DUDOC programma Gombert	Regie Orgaan Geesteswetenschappen
Kees de Glopper	€ 3500	DUDOC programma Groen	Regie Orgaan Geesteswetenschappen
Kees de Glopper	€ 3500	DUDOC programma Steenbakkers	Regie Orgaan Geesteswetenschappen
Kees de Glopper	€ 3500	DUDOC programma Vis	Regie Orgaan Geesteswetenschappen
Hanneke Loerts	9590	3m Meertaligheid	Noordelijke Hoogelschool Leeuwaarden(NHL)

Table 2: CLCG other externally obtained grants

2. Finances

Travel and Material Costs

The budget for CLCG travel and material costs, intended for regular members of the CLCG, covers staff travel abroad and organization of conferences, workshops and other meetings with a scientific character. In 2017, the annual financial support from the Faculty of Arts amounted to € 30,000. In the reporting period the amount of € 44.410 was spent.

3. Individual Academic Research Output per Research Group

Output indicators:

1 Academic Publications

- Article
- Book
- Book editing
- Conference contribution (proceedings)
- Chapter
- Doctoral Dissertation
- Paper
- Scientific review

2 Academic Presentations

- Poster
- Presentation
- Invited talk

3 Other Academic Research Activities (and Engagement)

- Awards and prizes
- Contribution to the work of national or international committees and working groups
- Conference chair
- Editorial activity
- Hosting academic visitor
- Invited talk (at external research organization)
- Membership of external research organization
- Membership of peer review panel or committee
- Organization of conference, workshop, seminar, course
- Participation in conference, workshop, seminar, course

5. Conferences, Meetings, and Visitors

5.1 International meetings organized in Groningen

CLCG members organized the following international meetings in Groningen in 2017:

Groningen Symposium on Language and Social Interaction

The third Groningen Symposium on Language and Social Interaction (GSLI) was organized by Center for Language and Cognition on January 19 and 20, 2017. The theme of this year's symposium was 'Survey Interview Interaction'. The symposium aimed to cover both qualitative and quantitative analysis of survey interview-interactions and brought together scholars interested in interaction in survey interviews, including interviewer-respondent and virtual agent-respondent interaction. The symposium was organized to honor Wil Dijkstra and Hanneke Houtkoop-Steenstra (1950-2002), two Dutch scholars that have studied interviewer-respondent interaction from different perspectives.

Keynote speakers are among others Fred Conrad (University of Michigan), Nora Cate Schaeffer (University of Wisconsin) and Wil Dijkstra. In addition, the symposium included presentations from: Jose Benki (University of Michigan), Jessica Broome (Jessica Broome Research), Hanyu Sun (Westat), Marieke Haan (Utrecht University), Geert Loosveldt (University of Leuven), Kristen Olson (University of Nebraska), Jolene Smyth (University of Nebraska), Michael Schober (The New School for Social Research), Bob Belli (University of Nebraska), Mike Huises (University of Groningen) and Yfke Ongena (University of Groningen). Tom Koole (CLCG) Peter Miller (US Census Bureau) wre discussants.
(see http://gsli.nl)

38st TABU Dag, June 22-23

TABU Dag is an annual conference on linguistics, organized by PhD candidates and a senior advisor of the CLCG. TABU Dag originated from the university's linguistic journal TABU (taalkundig bulletin, linguistic bulletin) and over the last 37 years has developed into a well-established conference with a varied program and guest speakers from different fields. TABU Dag 2017 was held on June 22nd & 23rd. The members of the organizing committee of TABU Dag 2017 were:

- Anna de Koster (Comitee Chair)
- Marco Dietrich (External Affairs)
- Isabel Eyer (Social Media)
- Toivo Glatz (Homepage & IT)
- Stefanie Keulen (Secretary)
- Rik van Noord (Treasurer)
- Martijn Wieling (Senior Staff)

Five keynote speakers were invited. On the fisrt day, Prof. Risto Näätänen (Academy Professor em. of the Academy of Finland, Professor of Cognitive Neuroscience of the University of Tartu, and Visiting professor of the University of Aarhus) opened the conference with a lecture titled "The mismatch negativity (MMN) as a unique index of decreased brain plasticity in different cognitive brain disorders". In the afternoon, Prof.

Anna Papafragou (Professor of Psychology and Language Acquisition, University of Delaware) gave a lecture about "Evidence and information in language and thought".

On the second day, the third keynote speaker Prof. Bart Geurts (Professor of Philosophy of Language and Logic, Radboud University Nijmegen) gave a talk on "Making sense of self talk". In between the day there was an NWO Open Access Session by Drs. Ane van der Leij (University Library, University of Groningen) who talked about "Open access publishing - Policies and oppportunities in the Netherlands and at the University of Groningen". The fifth keynote speaker Willem (Jelle) Zuidema (Assistant professor in Cognitive Science and Computational Linguistics, University of Amsterdam) ended the conference with his keynote lecture on "Neural Grammars: building models that take both the brain and language seriously".

This years TABU Dag was a special edition with a new format! For TABU dag 2017, the organziers accepted abstracts for posters with flash presentations. All sessions were plenary, which means that each presenter had the chance to speak 2-3 minutes in front of the entire audience to introduce their research. In comparison to a programme with parallel sessions, this means that there is no need for the audience to move rooms between talks, and that presenters are guaranteed the full attention of all conference attendees. In addition, there is more time and space devoted to posters, which invites a deeper exchange about the research.
The organizers registered 130 participants and 80 poster/flash presentations.
The poster theme was promoted with cash prizes of up to €200 for the best posters. The best poster awards were given to:
1) First session:
    1. Evelyn Bosma
    2. Angelo Basile
2) Second session:
    1. Michaela Strinsel
    2. Steven Gilbers
3) Third session
    1. Emma Strating
    2. Jeffrey Pheiff
The organizers received only positive feedback about the poster theme and TABU Dag received a participant rating of 8.8 out of 10!

International Workshop on Statistical Modeling
From July 3 - 7, 2017 the International Workshop on Statistical Modeling took place at the Univeristy of Groningen. Martijn Wieling was co-organizer of the event.
Keynotes:

7th International Conference on Speech Motor Control

From July 5 - 8, 2017, the seventh edition of the International Speech Motor Conference was held in Groningen sponsored by CLCG. Similar to previous conferences, a book will be published containing state-of-the-art overviews and in-depth discussions of the major topics of the conference. The editors aim to produce a book that is useful for research master and PhD students and strive for publication by the end of 2018. If context allows and interest remains, we hope to be able to organize the 8th conference in 4 or 5 years.

The program and organizing committee: Ben Maassen (chair; CLCG), Hayo Terband (co-chair), Frits van Brenk (webmaster), Edwin Maas, Aravind Namasivayam and Pascal van Lieshout.

International Conference on Multilingualism (COM2017), Groningen, November 6-8, 2017

This year, a group of multilingualism researchers at the Groningen Center for Language and Cognition) hosted and organzied the Conference on Multilingualism (COM2017)) from 6 to 8 November 2017. Organising committee: Nanna Hilton, Merel Keijzer, Hanneke Loerts, Simone Sprenger (all CLCG). Scientific committee: Marc Brysbaert (UGent), Nanna Hilton, Merel Keijzer, Hanneke Loerts, Simone Sprenger, Esli Struys (VUB), Evy Woumans (UGent).

The topics for presentation comprised cognitive and educational aspects related to bilingualism and multilingualism, including (but not limited to) language processing, language acquisition, neurolinguistics, bi-/multilingualism and cognitive control, education in a foreign language, and bi-/multilingualism and (working) memory.

Researchers working on heritage language maintenance, language attrition or communal language loss in multilingual situations were especially invited to contribute this year as COM2017 hosted a special session on these topics.

The Conference on Multilingualism started in 2005 at the University of Trento under the name 'Workshop on Bilingualism', but has since then grown into a conference with a somewhat broader scope in order to include different aspects of cognition, as well as linguistic, social and educational aspects. This year, COM will be combined with a special session on minority language loss, as well as a two-day graduate Winter School on methodological issues in multilingualism research. Graduate students (including PhD candidates) were especially invited to attend the Winter School November on the 9th and 10th of November with an exciting hands-on program. The special session and the Winter School were sponsored by the Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) and the U4 Multilingualism group respectively.

Keynotes:

- Prof. Robert Hartsuiker
- Prof. Monika Schmid
- Prof. Guillaume Thierry
- Prof. Jeanine Treffers-Daller, University of Reading, UK

Informatica 30 years!

Alfa-informatica started in 1986 as a study programme which included topics in Information Science, Humanities Computing, Artificial Intelligence, Information Technology and Language Technology. The study programme is nowadays called Information Science and focuses on Language Technology and Web Technology. Professor of Alfa-informatica, John Nerbonne, held his farewell lecture on the day of the 30th anniversary.

The 30th anniversary was celebrated with a symposium with a great lineup of invited speakers:

- Harald Baayen (University of Tübingen) - "How do French baboons distinguish between English words and pseudo-words? A comparison of deep learning with wide learning"
- Mark Liberman (UPenn) - "Visualizing Prosod"
- Max Louwerse (Tilburg University) - "Explaining the world around us using language statistics"
- Joakim Nivre (Uppsala University) – "What is this thing called Universal Dependencies?"

Demos of local on-going projects and on the history of Alfa-Informatica were given in an 'open corridor' session at the fourth floor of the Harmonie building.

The organizing committee consisted of: Johan Bos, Gosse Bouma, Kilian Evang, Rob van der Goot, Malvina Nissim, Gertjan van Noord, Dieke Oele, Barbara Plank, Martijn Wieling (http://www.let.rug.nl/30years/).

5.2 Local conferences, cooperation, and colloquia

CLCG was centrally involved in several other local workshops, symposia, seminars, and discussion groups.

Workshop Foreign Accent Syndrome (FAS)

The workshop was organized by the RUG on May 19th in collaboration with the Vrije Universiteit Brussel on the occasion of Stefanie Keulen's defence. The workshop was sponsored by the Netherlands Aphasia Foundation (SAN) and the Center for Language and Cognition Groningen (CLCG).

- Peter Mariën (Vrije Universiteit Brussel) Historical overview
- Marcelo Berthier (University of Malaga) invited lecture
- Stefanie Keulen (Vrije Universiteit Brussel; University of Groningen) Psychogenic FAS
- Jo Verhoeven (City University of London) Speech characteristics of FAS
- Roel Jonkers (University of Groningen) FAS and Apraxia of Speech
- Rosemary Varley (University of Sheffield) invited lecture

Symposium on 'L2 Writing Development' in honor of Junping Hou's defense

On Thursday July 13th 2017, Junping Hou defended her PhD-thesis about 'The dynamics of English writing development in advanced Chinese learners'. Her defense will be preceded by a symposium on 'L2 Writing Development' on July 12th 2017 from 1 to 5 pm during which Prof. Quifang Wen, Prof. Kees de Glopper, and Junping Hou gave a presentation.

GSH / CLCG Linguistics Summer Lectures 2017

On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, July 10-12, a series of three lectures were be held in the context of the GSH (Graduate School) / CLCG Linguistics Summer Lectures 2017. This year, Jordi Fortuny Andreu from the University of Barcelona gave a seminar on Ambiguity and Language Design. The lectures were open for everyone interested in the subject. Organzier and contacperson: Jan-Wouter Zwart.

Linguistics Colloquium

The CLCG colloqia are held monthly, unsually on Thursday from 12:10 to 12:45 (talk starts at 12.15). Organization: Remco Knooihuizen, Barbara Plank, Emar Maier, Hanneke Loerts, Ielka van der Sluis.

Workshop "Language Abilities in Children with Autism"

On Thursday, March 23, Pertra Hendriks (CLCG) organzied the University of Amsterdam workshop "Language Abilities in Children with Autism" (LACA) together with Jeannette Schaeffer (University of Amsterdam).

Speakers:

- Linguistic and cognitive development of monolingual and bilingual children with ASD Ianthi Tsimpli – University of Cambridge, UK
- Assessing pragmatic abilities in typical and atypical children Francesca Foppolo, Francesca Panzeri and Teresa Guasti – University of Milano-Bicocca, Italy
- Perspective taking and pragmatics in children with ASD Mikhail Kissine - Université Libre de Bruxelles, Belgium
- Pronouns, perspective taking and theory of mind in children with ASD Petra Hendriks - University of Groningen, the Netherlands
- (Morpho)syntax, pragmatics and extra-linguistic cognition in Dutch-speaking children with HFA and with SLI Jeannette Schaeffer - University of Amsterdam, the Netherlands
- Heterogeneity of morpho-syntactic abilities in German-speaking children and adolescents with ASD Flavia Adani – University of Potsdam, Germany
- The difficulties of high-functioning children with ASD with morphosyntax may not be due to impaired morphosyntax: Evidence from environments that require or ban object clitics.   Arhonto Terzi - Technological Educational Institute of Western Greece, Patras
- Comparing the use of clitics in experiments vs. narrative tasks in high-functioning Greek-speaking children with autism Theodoros Marinis – University of Reading, UK
- Linguistic profile of narratives of children with ASD Rama Novogrodsky – University of Haifa, Israel
- Investigating language profiles across the autism spectrum Philippe Prevost & Laurie Tuller – Université François-Rabelais Tours, France
- Heterogeneity of language in ASD: More evidence for the ALI/ALN distinction from syntax and pragmatics Alexandra Perovic – University College London, UK
- What conventional language could reveal about autism ra Noveck - Institut des Sciences Cognitives, Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique, Lyon, Franc

5.4 Visiting scholars

The following eight scholars visited CLCG during 2017:

1. Charlotte Gooskens hosted Cindy Schneider from 19-Jun-2017 → 23-Jun-2017.
2. Charlotte Gooskens hosted Hanna-Ilona Härmävaara from 8-Feb-2017 → 10-Feb-2017.
3. Charlotte Gooskens hosted Maria Angeles Jurado from 18-Oct-2017 → 24-Oct-2017.
4. Angeliek van Hout hosted:

- Anne Tamm, Dutch Dept, Karoli Gaspar University, Budapest May 1—5.
- Sabina Halupka Resetar and Maja Markovic, Linguistics Dept., University of Novi Sad,May 15—19.
- Tom Roeper, Linguistics Dept, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Oct 20—26. Maria J. Arche, Dept of Literature, Language and Theatre, University of Greenwich, London, Nov 16—18.

7.2 Graduate students enrolled in 2017

Graduate students and postdocs are responsible for a good deal of the day-to-day work of CLCG, including the organization of the meetings of the research groups, the organization of the CLCG colloquia, the organization of the CLCG Linguistics Lunches, the publishing of the weekly CLCG calendar, and the organization of the annual CLCG TABU Dag. The graduate students were represented on the CLCG advisory board by Joëlle Ooms.

In 2017, 14 new PhD projects started, 8 in the Neurolinguistics and Language Development group and 1 in the Computational Linguistics, 4 in Discourse & Communication, 1 in Theoretical & Empirical Linguisticc:

- Lisanne Knol, A conversation analytic study on different psychotherapeutic interventions for patients with Major Depressive Disorder. (DC)
- Sirkku Lesonen, Conceptualizations and their mapping onto linguistic constructions: development in L2 Finnish learners in an instructional setting. (NLD)
- Masha Medvedeva, Automatic detection of linguistic patterns in legal big data. (CL)
- Ann-Katrin Ohlerth, Implementing verb tasks in navigated Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation preoperative Language Mapping to improve map reliability compared to Direct Cortical Stimulation Mapping in low-grade glioma patients. (NLD)
- Hongying Peng, A dynamic usage-based perspective on L2 lexical development. (NLD)
- Liset Rouweler, How students with dyslexia can optimize their studies in higher education. (NLD)
- Marlon Ruwette, Leesbevordering in groep 7 en 8 van het primair onderwijs in Nederland. (DC)
- Miguel Santín, Means vs Results. A cross-linguistic comparison of the role of language-specific structures in the cognitive representation of resultative events. (TEL)
- Isir Scholten, Predictive processing in children with Autism Spectrum Disorders. (NLD)
- Kaimook Siriboonpipattana, Offline and Online Sentence Processing: Word Order and Time Reference in Thai Agrammatic Speakers. (NLD)
- Jeroen Steenbakkers, Bewuste taalvaardigheid in lessen schrijfstijl. (DC)
- Suzan Tokaç, Characteristics of homonym finite and non-finite verbs in Turkish. (NLD)
- Frank Tsiwah, Processing of time reference and grammatical tone in Akan. (NLD)
- Moniek Vis, Genredidactiek bij Nederlands: blijvend betere samenhang en bewuster geletterde leerlingen. (DC)

7.3 Postdocs

The following postdocs were active in 2017: Lasha Abzianidze (Computational Linguistics), Rimke Groenewold, Jacolien van Rij-Tange, Jorrig Vogels (Neurolinguistics and Language Development), Marlies Kluck and Saskia Peels (Theoretical and Empirical Linguistics).
